THIS SIDE OF CARD IS FOR ADDRESS

The Presbyterian,
1217 Market St,
Philadelphia
Pa

Attention Dr Robinson

May 5 - Presbyterian Leader -
"One thing lacking" - strikes a lofty but practical note. I could not pass it along over my shoulder
"no how." I liked the poem on the outside cover - too - the mother poem.

Yours most gratefully,

A. V. C.

Bellefonte, Pa.
6/11/32.

MRS. ROSWELL VINNING
MAPLECREST, N. Y.

April 12, 1932

Rev. W. C. Robinson
Editor of Presbyterian
Philadelphia, Pa.

ck 5/2

My dear Dr. Robinson,

Although the finances of farmers these days is at a low ebb, still we feel we cannot get along without the Presbyterian so am enclosing a check for $2.50 for another year's subscription.

There is so much that is good in your paper and I rejoice because you are so loyal to the Master. You love peace - as most of us do - but I wonder if conditions to-day do not require men who shall speak boldly against the evils that are so evident. The world does not love its "weeping Jeremiahs", but God may require them to give His messages to men even though they be hated for doing it.

If God would allow His people to be defeated for the sin of one man - Achan - how can the Church expect God's blessing when men are allowed in the pulpits who are dishonoring the Son of God?

I heard Dr. Cadman quoting Jeremiah the other day.

MRS. ROSWELL VINNING
MAPLECREST, N. Y.

"The prophets prophesy falsely and the priests bear rule by their means; and my people love to have it so." He said that was just the reason things are as they are to-day the people not only do not care but they love to have it so.

I think the time is fast approaching when the Conservatives will no longer be allowed to sit meekly down within the Church: they will be ordered to become Modernists or get out of the Presbyterian Church.

I fear the Church has been so kind, so tolerant, it has nourished a serpent in its bosom that will presently sting it to death.

I'm afraid, too, that you are deceived in regard to Princeton Seminary and that you will find it out at some later day. It isn't possible to take steps downward with no bad results and my information has come from men inside. So many of those who have been loyal seem to be gradually being drawn to the side of Modernism, May God keep you true.

Very sincerely

(Mrs Roswell Vining) Julia Vining

674 47th Street
Brooklyn, N. Y.
March 21, 1932

Dear Doctor Robinson:

I thank you for your very kind words about the articles on the Church.

They were given some years ago, in a somewhat longer form, to evening congregations in the Church I was serving.

If they may be instrumental in increasing the devotion of others to the Lord Jesus and His Church I shall be happy.

Thanking you again, I am

Sincerely yours, E. Dayo Van Dyck

Department of
New Testament Literature
SELBY FRAME VANCE

Founded 1825

The Western Theological Seminary

Pittsburgh, Pa.

3/12/32

Dear Court:-

Enclosed please find copy for review. I judge from length of others in The Presbyterian that this is sufficiently long.

Yours,

Selby

Rev. W.C. Robinson, D.D.
The Presbyterian,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Leavenworth, Kansas.
March 2, 1932.

Mr. W. Courtland Robinson,
Editor The PRESBYTERIAN,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear. Mr. Robinson:

Thank you for your thoughtfulness in sending me some copies of The PRESBYTERIAN for January 14, 1932, containing, on page 19, my verse, STORY TIME.

Having recently opened a new set of books I find no record of the time I sent in the poem. Thinking the check may have gone astray, I venture to remind you of it.

Sincerely yours,

Emma Upton Vaughn.
Columnist The Leavenworth Times-

Lock Box 221,

Leavenworth, Kansas.
March 3d 1923.

Mr. W. Courtland Robinson,
Editor The PRESBYTERIAN,
Philadelphia, Pa.

Dear Mr. Robinson:

Thank you for your thoughtfulness in sending me some copies of the PRESBYTERIAN for January 14, 1923, containing on page 15, my verse, STORY TIME.

Having recently opened a new set of books I find no record of the time I sent in the poem. Thinking the check may have gone astray, I venture to remind you of it.

Sincerely yours,

Emma Upton Vaughn.

Box 221 Columbia The Leavenworth Times